

Photographs Tell Story of Tragic End to ZR-2 After Explosion and Fall Into River Humber

SEARCHING THE SKELETON OF THE ZR-2 AT LOW TIDE FOR THE BODIES OF THE CREW AFTER HAVING REMOVED THE FABRIC FROM THE TORN AND TWISTED FRAMEWORK OF GIRDERS. THE TOWN OF HULL CAN BE SEEN IN THE BACKGROUND.

A NEW SPORT rapidly gaining favor on the Pacific Coast is "water-tennis." It is an adaptation of lawn tennis to the swimming pool and is described as a great hot-weather diversion. The photo shows Elenore Hughes and Marie Curtis playing in a doubles match at Los Angeles. (©International.)

"VERY GOOD," remarked Captain Vogelgesang when this gun crew performed for the inspecting party on board Eagle Boat No. 44, during a ship to ship inspection of the Naval Reserve Squadron at the end of a two weeks' cruise. (Inset) Captain John W. Timmons, in command of the Naval Reserve. These men were clerks and farmer boys only two weeks ago.

UNDER FIRE IN MINGO WAR—Machine guns repulsing an attack by miners on Blair Mountain, West Virginia. The photographer, when at work, came within range of the miners' fire. (©International.)

CAMP COOK PRESENTS "DOUG" WITH A LIVE SNAKE. SCOUTS' GREAT DAY—There was a great time at Lake Kanoawake in the camp of the Boy Scouts of America, due to the visit of Douglas Fairbanks and his wife, Mary Pickford. Douglas and Mary say they had the best time; but the boys say nothing doing, the best time was had by the boys themselves. Dick Winter, one of the scouts, showed Doug how to box. Doug took the curtain, then the camp cook gave Doug one fine present—a live snake. He put this in his vest pocket, while Mary looked on and shuddered at the creepy thing.

THE ONLY PHOTOGRAPH made of the ZR-2 as she struck the water afire, which shows that boats went to the rescue before the burning airship hit the river.

CHARLES BROWN, American flying officer, swam under water and flames in attempt to rescue

SEEKS TO LEAD PAGEANT—Miss Gretchen Upshur is only one of several hundred heart-ravishing daughters of the Old Dominion who are entered in a contest for Queen of the Virginia historical pageant to be held in Richmond next May. Miss Upshur is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Upshur, of No. 351 Fifty-third street, Newport News, Va. Balloting for Queen of the pageant will begin next Thursday.

NORMAN O. WALKER, of Commerce, Texas, the only American out of seventeen to survive.

KEEPING FIT—Maurice, the well-known American dancer, photographed on the beach while he was engaged in doing some clever steps with some fair partners of Paris Plage de Touquet, France.

AGREEMENT SIGNED—Walter Lyman Brown (on left), head of the American Relief Administration in Europe, and Maxim Litvinoff, Russian Soviet Ambassador to Latvia, leaving the Latvian Foreign Office in Riga after signing an agreement regarding American relief in the famine-stricken districts of Soviet Russia.

POM POM SKIRT—Miss Ada Taylor, president of the Ambassador Swimming Club, of Atlantic City, and her maids all ready to parade in the Bathers' Revue, September 8. Miss Taylor's costume is hand knit.

MARY SINGS TO THE BOYS AFTER DINNER.

AMERICAN LEGION HONORED—Marshal Foch decorating John G. Emery, national commander of American Legion and head of the party now visiting France with the Legion of Honor. The party placed a tablet to commemorate the achievements of Foch on the house where he was born.

THAT WAS A GOOD ONE, but just what the story was we cannot tell you. Premier Lloyd George found time to go to the Carlton Hall, London, to vote in the recent Abbey election, and it was as he was leaving that the incident occurred. They may have wanted his number, which was K-2252, but that's nothing to laugh at.
